

Rewards for Cricket Partnership Announcement

First Class Barmy Army members can now save money when watching England thanks to our new partnership with Rewards4Cricket!

With Rewards4Cricket you can collect points on your online shopping and betting activity. These points can then be used to make fantastic savings on your tickets and membership with us.

There are over 4,000 retailers to choose from, so your points will soon add up! All you need to do is exchange them for a voucher to use on our website. With an exciting period of cricket ahead of us, including the Test series against India, there is no better time to sign up to our new partners and start making great savings!

To find out more and sign up for this great offer just log into the First Class members landing page, scroll down and click on the Rewards for Cricket pane.

BBC Radio Live Broadcast – Audience Wanted!

Birmingham.

On July 31 between 11 am - 13.30pm we're looking for 20 Barmy Army members located in the Greater Birmingham area to participate in the audience of a live BBC radio broadcast with an exciting panel made up of England and Warwickshire legend Jonathan Trott and other big names (tbc). The LIVE podcast will be looking ahead to the India test series with an audience made up of Barmy Army fans and India fans. The podcast will take questions from the audience as well as getting some great insights and stories from Jonathon Trott and others.
